

The Third Dream

Mystery

Look at you
At my feet you're crawling
But I don't need you now

You come in here
Pretending you are crying
But I don't feel you now

You can fall on your knees
You can beg if you please
You can do anything that you want

But don't waste my time
I found what I needed
This is my life
I don't care what you are saying

Listen you
Would you please stop crying?
I want you to leave right now.

I hear you're saying
That I am slowly dying
Still I'm alive somehow

Here me say
Gone is all my loving
And look who's dying now

You can fall on your knees
You can beg as you please
You can do anything that you want

Stop wasting your time
I found what I needed
This is my life
Leave me alone

I don't need
Your faked understanding
Please just leave me now...
