

Theatre Of The Mind

Mystery

Welcome to the theatre of the mind
Sit down right here and close your eyes

Everybody's rushing out now
To get the best ticket for the show
But you don't have to worry somehow
Here everyone is center seat front row

Soon we'll take you where
No one has gone before
This is the Theatre of the mind

A stage rises up now
As we introduce this in your veins, yeah
Close those sleepy eyes
The vision will blow away your brain

Even in your wildest dreams
You never could've asked for more
This is the Theatre of the Mind

Welcome to the theatre of the mind
Sit down right here and close your eyes

Sit right back and enjoy the show

Welcome to the theatre of the mind
(Welcome to the theatre of the mind)
Sit down right here and close your eyes

Emotions out of control
Distorted feelings burning into flames
Confusing the whole of your soul
Afraid of waking up insane

There is no escape from here
Memories will last forever
This is the Theatre of the Mind

Welcome to the theatre of the mind
"Is there any way out of here?"
Sit down right here and close your eyes
"Emotions turning into fear"
Welcome to the theatre of the mind
"Oh! Please someone help me out of here"
