

You know the reasons for my sorrow
For it's all because of you
I'm here sifting through the wreckage
And I'm wondering what to do

A child learning all the notions
Of a world hostile and cruel
He turns to mother in devotion
To find out she's left him too
And there's not much he can do...

It's such a waste of time
Why do I always have to come to you
To save my life?
Moonlight night
Howling wolves are running after me
Not far behind

Young man climbing up the ladder
Of this social rendez-vous
Halfway, he gives a girl a flower
And right then becomes a fool

Our faith is trapped beneath the surface
But the light keeps shinning through
For love that set things into motion
Has become so evil too
And there's not much we can do

Seems you can read my mind
Why do I always have to come to you
To save my life?
Moonlight night
Howling wolves are running after me
Not far behind

You know the reasons for my sorrow
For it's all because of you
And it's coming back to you

It's such a waste of time
Why do I always have to run to you
To save my life?
Moonlight night
Howling wolves are running after me
Not far behind
