

born with the grace of Odin inside the blood of the warrior he was the lonesome hero and a fighter of king Gunther black was his armour his sword was faster than winds under the sign of the falcon he beats every enemy one eye in his head that shows how many fights he had and the long scare in his face that shows how he was injured. his home in the higher north is a place called Tronje and his gloomy castle is behind storms and ice cold winds the one and only love he had was the beauty Kriemhild he had sworn to fight for her and to give his live with Brunhild he made a bound against the holy Xanten king and at the right time he should kill the dragonslayer but there were other sides in his life we talk about
he were a proud knight many victories he had in his whole life and no one could destroy Hagens heart in a fight he was to strong all the strenght that he had was from Odin
and to him he prayed until he died. in the name of Wotan / Hagens soul was fighting on his blackened horse / he rides till he dies Ever on the search / of the sin of live no quite moments / a traveller he was ever on a journey / find a love of live but his destiny was / ever to stay alone Hagen:
"Oh father Odin
take my soul up high when I'm dead and gone I'll sit in the walls of Wallhall
