

Burning Bridges

Mystic Prophecy

decades of decadence and aeons of evil comes over you this night my son the power of angels and the heresy of christ can never save you again living shadows dance around in a circle and bathing with your blood burning bridges burning in my eyes my kingdom burns down and falling burning bridges burns in my eyes my soul has left me tonight i'm coming from the center of damnation to the outskirts of hell i'm the maze of god i lead you in another heaven and i am the true face of evil now that the skies are painted with the blood of the angels the last eclipse of the sun has begun
