

Eyes of the Devil

Mystic Prophecy

Welcome here in the dark
Your heart and soul with the evil
A deadly part
Fallen down from the heavens gate to earth
With the broken wings
You wait for recreation
The beast unleashed again
Free and wild without existing law
And write with blood my name on the snow
Deep down below

Every night you call my name
Every nightmare will never be the same
Sacrifice for you my life
From the darkness escape to survive
Your the devil in disguise
I surrender my soul with you will rise
You betrayed my soul with lies
For my sins I pay the price
Through the eyes of the devil
Through the eyes of the devil

He's back from the black
With rage unholy attack
Like a desert storm in the night
Take revenge with a last fight
Now - he loves extermination
The creature again is alive
Monster of deception
Lost soul of God's creation
Deep down below

Every night you call my name
Every nightmare will never be the same
Sacrifice for you my life
From the darkness escape to survive
Your the devil in disguise
I surrender my soul with you will rise
You betrayed my soul with lies
For my sins I pay the price
Through the eyes of the devil
Through the eyes of the devil
