

Sign Of The Cross

Mystic Prophecy

Close your eyes
Can you hear me in the dark
I see angels in black
Visions of fire
Visions of pain
Whipped by the past
And you bleeding inside!

Only then
You will realize what you have done
I've seen visions of power
And rumours of war

The sign of the cross
It's a sign to your soul
The sign of the cross
It's a sign to remind
It's a sign to survive
The sign of the cross

I'm the one who creates your dreams
And I'm the one that steals them
Give me your hand and let me take you to places
Full of darkness and pain

Only then
You will realize what you have done
I've seen visions of power
And rumours of war

The sign of the cross
It's a sign to your soul
The sign of the cross
It's a sign to remind
It's a sign to survive
The sign of the cross

Sign of the cross
It's a sign to your soul
Sign of the cross
It's a sign to remind
It's a sign to survive
Sign of the cross
It's a sign to your soul
Sign of the cross
It's a sign to remind
It's a sign to survive
The sign of the cross
