

When I'm Falling

Mystic Prophecy

the night falling over me and the fear is your only friend i'm your depression
your inner beast is home again

can you describe the pain now you fell all of my suffering

when i'm falling
i open my arms
i won't deny it
when i'm falling
i know you await for me

now close your eyes
and let your guide to the other side of the sea
a place of darkness
where the sin and death reign
all over the souls

what ever you do
where ever you go my misery
will follow you
