

Verses In The Fire (heavy Version)

Mythos

Hidden legends, secret they may be. Not meant for all of us to know. Those who studied and believed - used the magic. Pay now responsibility for all the horrors unleashed. The ones only to roam in the Land Of No Return... Chorus: Burn the book, Verses in fire. Spare no time. Struggle and survive. It's more than just.. The whole book of verses. Temptating it is... Smoky characters, taking shapes. Voices in utterly hideous tones. Pages crackle and burn. Letters vanish in flames... Repeat Chorus: Creatures in black dimensions, the bringers of dark. Better to forget legends, Verses perish in flames... LET IT BURN !
