

Missing You

N-Dubz

Yeeeahh Yeeeahh Yeeeahh oooohhhh
I remember the time
When I saw your face for the last time
It was like I'd never cried so much in my life before
I know your watching us

She had a smile that was so neat
Had a voice that was so sweet
I even used to like it
When she kissed me on my cheek
I really used to love it when we chilled on the beach
Whilst listening to beats
It was fun
Taking a drag of a fag
Blazing at the sun
Always looking out for me
Like I was your son
Hate picturing the state of your mum
Knowing she lost her only daughter that never made it to 21
It all started on Friday the 13th
Up at a café
Tryna persuade you to come for a drink
But you was insisting to stay
And I could tell by the look in your eyes
Something was moving the wrong way
So unfortunately you decided to climb on the back of your mans bike
To go on a ride whilst he was out of his head
You shoulda been here instead
But it is too late your already lying dead in a hospital bed

Now I'm here to talk about
A very special young girl
Whose life has just been taken away
And I've come to realise
Appreciate it's your life
Today could be your last day

I've been thinking about all these tragedies
This life has been bad to me
And I've just been wasting away
Every time that I think about the way you died
My chest goes so tight I wanna break down and cry
Something's really wrong inside
No no

My friend
I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We had to lose you like this
My friend
I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We're missing you
We're missing you

I still think about the past
Last summer by the tree

Where we played the guitar
Then have a drink and laugh
And after that you would lay down and show me the stars
But then twelve months later
You left me mentally scarred
To hear that you passed
I cried so many tears so hard it broke my heart
Knowing that we cried on the same bridge with 2 kids
Did on your way to buy a pack of cigs but

If only youuu (If only you would listen when we told you our plans)
You wouldn't beee (Where you are right now, 6 feet underground)
Yooouuuu would get a 2nd chance (Yeah, all that would be forgotten
Send you back to this earth where you deserve and by the way
Heres something that we wrote for your 21st)

Every time that I think about the way you died
My chest goes so tight I wanna break down and cry
Something's really wrong inside
No no

My friend
I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We had to lose you like this
My friend
I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We're missing you
We're missing you

Oooh oh oh oh oh
Yeah yeah
Oooh Oooh
Oh oh oh Oooh

My friend
I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We had to lose you like this
My friend
I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We're missing you
We're missing you
Oh

I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We had to lose you like this
My friend
I never thought I'd say goodbye
Somebody tell me why
We're missing you
We're missing you
Oh

Ooooh yeah yeah yeah yeah
