

In the Mirror

Nada Surf

I look in the mirror
To see what my hair is doing
Is it kind of skywalker
Or is it kind of stupid?
But that's not the real
Reason I'm looking
I need a reminder
Of what I'm doing
I need a reminder
That I'm human

In my dreams I look through
A snowstorm in the night
The windows open wide
Here comes your septic lie
Keep the covers up
We betted all our love

But two dreams have been damaged in life
When you need so much you can't get it right
Who else is here today
All the lonely can't obey
Swim on my back at night
Near my clothes with a flashlight

I look in the mirror
Why i'm i complicated
Try to see clearer
The sun has faded

In my dreams I look through a
Snowstorm in the night
The windows open wide
Here comes your frantic lie

But two dreams have been damaged in life
When you need so much you can't get it right
Who else is here today
All the lonely can't obey
Swim on my back at night
Near my clothes with a flashlight

I look in the mirror
I look in the mirror
