Nadine Coyle

Falling so far from the truth
Playing catch up with no room
For me - to breathe
We know better than their lies
They have no right to criticize
We're always free

Don't wanna walk away
cause everything they say
Is just a drop in the ocean to me

It's just Rumours
They got no worth
Just words going round
Don't let them bring us down
They're just rumours
I know they hurt
I need you to believe in me
Not those rumours (rumours)
Blow them away
Rumours (rumours)
(Just) blow them away
(Hey)

Believe in half of what you see
and nothing that you hear
Their whispers whispers whispers
What do you want from us
There's nothing to discuss
Get out of my way, get outta my face - yeaaaaah
Don't wanna walk away
Cause everything they say
Is just a drop in the ocean to me

It's just rumours
They got no worth
Just words going round

Don't let them bring us down
They're just rumours
I know they hurt
I need you to believe in me
Not those rumours (rumours)
Blow them away
Rumours (rumours)
(Just) blow them away
(Uh huhhhh)

So just keep talking
So just keep talking

Believe in half of what you see
and nothing that you hear
Their whispers whispers

Yeaaaah It's just rumours
They got no worth

Just words going round
Don't let them bring us down
They're just rumours
I know they hurt
I need you to believe in me
Not those rumours (rumours)
Blow them away
Rumours (rumours)
(Just) blow them away

So just keep talking
So just keep talking
So just keep talking
So just keep talking
