

Into the Black

Naglfar

I'm dying from within
Is this the end of the road that
I've traveled in sin?
Many are the times when
I've shed my skin
But I can't escape this battle,
This one I can never win

You follow my commandments,
But do you read between the lines?
I'm trapped in a pit where no light ever shines
In solitude my prayers came through
I damn myself -
This is me teaching you

Watch me, see how I suffer and die
Death is my shadow,
This is my goodbye
Don't want to live no more,
Life is a lie
So I hurt myself,
Watch my veins run dry

I'm trapped in this inner hell
I once chose to fall and I fell
Hiding from the world alone in my shell
I think people know what
I don't dare to tell

Hear my screams,
This agonizing cries
I'm standing right in front of you,
You watch as I die
I hate myself,
And I hate most of you too
I spit at the mirror,
Reaper now lead me through
