

Like I'd Care

Naildown

Just a wounded soul
That's left to go on by myself
Just shattered remains of all that I have left
Burnt, broken, dead inside
Nothing to lose
Every time I fly high
You bring pitch black skies
(That's what you do)
Your mind aside
I only fall away here
Like I'd care, if you tried to hold me down
Like I'd care, so broken, nothing to lose
I won't break, I won't break anymore
I won't take, your stabbing no more
Just a wounded soul
That's left to go on by myself
Just shattered remains of all that I have left
Burnt, ripped, inside out
Yet alive
Your mind aside
I only fall away here
Like I'd care, if you tried to hold me down
Like I'd care, so broken, nothing to lose
I won't break, I won't break anymore
I won't take, your stabbing no more
