

Wonder Beer

Naked Raygun

Drunk again -- not a weekend
Isn't life a fkin' ball?
Should have read all the writing on the wall
Pissed again -- one more loose end
Ever see such a fkin' gall?
But I'm laughing at angels as they fall

Drunk again -- not a weekend
My insides feel black and blue
Will this healing elixir pull me through Drunk again -- where is Lou Reed?
Come on Iggy -- tell me true
Wish Roy Orbison could tell me what to do

[Chorus:]

So I'll drink
To the wonder, while I wander
If there are gods they must be drunk
Rev'ling in the madness you and I
So I'll wonder, while I wander
If there are gods they must be drunk
Rev'ling in the madness you and I

Drunk again not a weekend
Give me needles -- sleep on pins
As I long for the sweet Bacchanalian din
Damned again -- since that weekend
From too much adrenalin
hide my eyes and take two more aspirin

[Chorus]

Drunk again -- not a weekend
Pagan alcholiday
Cheer and beer hounds -- that still keep me at bay
Drunk again -- till the binge ends
My glass fortress my mainstay
And the wonder of each new sordid day
