

Motionless

Name Taken

This is not how i need to remember you My dreams lie outloud but they pull me through As I- wonder how i'm breathing (when) My eyes have failed to find you with me Well here i lay motionless standing still, holding on to what i thought that was, but you will leave me and lie until my last breaths hating how you've left me
Even if i could scream it'd only be half a sigh- of what i think of you
As I- fail to find you with me Here i wait for your descent to the ground Opportunity for hate, to write you out- of my heart and my last dreams,
To bury you pathetic and ordinary Just like how you left me now Hate how you left me now
