

Lay Down Joe

Vernon, Nan

When you're walking in the twilight
The wind blows through your hair
When you think the key is broken
Will the door be locked for ever
For ever and a day

Lay down Joe
Lay down hard
Into my arms
Forever put 'er there

When you're racing through the highlife
Celebrate the time has come
Tears that break the book of blood
I am the ink that's navy blue
Connected to the sea and you

Lay down Joe
Lay down hard
Into my arms
Forever put 'er there
