

No More Lullabyes

Vernon, Nan

You're no angel don't pretend to be
Say to me what you're hiding from me
You split the world in two
Saving me from who
This indecision is killing you

No more lullabyes
He said with his face in his hands
I'm breaking this contract
And I'm moving to France

No more lullabyes
Wipe the tears from your eyes
This comes as no surprise

You're no angel
Stand up to your pride
File the figures down to size
You're wasting precious time
You're no angel you can't protect me
Free yourself like no one else can

No more lullabyes
He said with his face in his hands
I'm breaking this contract
And I'm moving to France

No more lullabyes
Wipe the tears from your eyes
This comes as no surprise

Life's a funny thing

It never starts
It never stops

No more lullabyes
He said with his face in his hands
I'm breaking this contract
And I'm moving to France

No more lullabyes
Wipe the tears from your eyes
This comes as no surprise

No more lullabyes
No more lullabyes
