No More Lullabyes

You're no angel don't pretend to be Say to me what you're hiding from me You split the world in two Saving me from who This indecisition is killing you

No more lullabyes He said with his face in his hands I'm breaking this contract And I'm moving to France

No more lullabyes Wipe the tears from your eyes This comes as no surprise

You're no angel Stand up to your pride File the figures down to size You're wasting precious time You're no angel you can't protect me Free yourself like no one else can

No more lullabyes He said with his face in his hands I'm breaking this contract And I'm moving to France

No more lullabyes Wipe the tears from your eyes This comes as no surprise

Life's a funny thing

It never starts It never stops

No more lullabyes He said with his face in his hands I'm breaking this contract And I'm moving to France

No more lullabyes Wipe the tears from your eyes This comes as no surprise

No more lullabyes No more lullabyes Vernon, Nan
