

I Believe In You

Nana Mouskouri

I don't believe in superstars
Organic food and foreign cars
I don't believe the price of gold
The certainty of growing old
That right is right and left is wrong
That north and south can't get along
That east is east and west is west
And being first is always best

But I believe in love, I believe in babies
I believe in mom and dad and I believe in you

I don't believe that heaven waits
For only those who congregate
I like to think of God as love
He's down below, He's up above
He's watching people everywhere
He knows who dies and doesn't care
And I'm an ordinary girl
Sometimes I wonder who I am

But I believe in love, I believe in music
I believe in magic and I believe in you

I know with all my certainty what's goin'
With you and me is a good thing
It's true I believe in you

I don't believe virginity is
Is as common as it used to be
In working days and sleeping nights
That black is black and white is white
That Superman and Robin Hood
Are still alive in Hollywood
That gasoline's in short supply
The rising cost of getting by

But I believe in love, I believe in old folks
I believe in children, I believe in you
But I believe in love, I believe in music
I believe in children and I believe in you
