

Johnny

Nana Mouskouri

When I think of Johnny
I remember the spring
I remember his laughter
And the way he would sing

Oh How I loved Johnny
With my heart
I loved Johnny
Oh How I loved Johnny
But he never knew

I prayed that he'd travel
Through the winter's wild storm
And he'd kiss me
And hold me
So close and so warm

Oh How I loved Johnny
With my heart
I loved Johnny
Oh How I loved Johnny
But he never knew

He left with leaves falling
Falling dead to the ground
And no more will I ever
Hear his sweet laughing sound

Oh How I loved Johnny
With my heart
I loved Johnny
Oh How I loved Johnny
But he never knew
But he never knew... When I think of Johnny
I remember the spring
I remember his laughter
And the way he would sing

Oh How I loved Johnny
With my heart
I loved Johnny
Oh How I loved Johnny
But he never knew

I prayed that he'd travel
Through the winter's wild storm
And he'd kiss me
And hold me
So close and so warm

Oh How I loved Johnny
With my heart
I loved Johnny
But he never knew

Falling dead to the ground
And no more will I ever

Oh How I loved Johnny
With my heart
But he never knew
But he never knew...
