Morning Angel

Nana Mouskouri

Morning angel let me sing in your light
Let me hold you let me tell you that it's all right
Morning angel let me sing in your light
Let me hold you let me tell you that it's all right
Just another night
Just another night

And when the sunrise sets
The sky on fire
And dedicates this day to you, love
You touch my soul and take my spirit higher
I'm falling I'm calling
My angel

Morning angel let me sing in your light
Let me hold you let me tell you that it's all right
Morning angel let me sing in your light
Let me hold you let me tell you that it's all right
Just another night
Just another night

Your restless spirit fills me with devotion
With every breath I want to hold on
Your every touch is such a contribution
I'm falling I'm calling
My angel

Morning angel let me sing in your light
Let me hold you let me tell you that it's all right
Morning angel let me sing in your light
Let me hold you let me tell you that it's all right
Just another night
Just another night

Morning angel, let me sing in your light
Let me hold you, let me tell you it's all right
Morning angel, let me sing in your light
Let me hold you, let me tell you it's all right
Morning angel, let me sing in your light
Let me hold you, let me tell you it's all right
Morning angel, let me sing in your light
Let me hold you, let me tell you it's all right
Morning angel, let me sing in your light
Let me hold you, let me tell you it's all right
Morning angel, let me sing in your light
Let me hold you, let me tell you...
