

The Love We Never Knew

Nana Mouskouri

All the leaves are gold
I know the summer's ended
Soon the autumn winds will blow
And my eyes will be wet like the dew

And I recall
The love I never gave him
And I will cry about
The love I never knew

Gone are all the dreams
They're gone away with summer
All the love we could have share
Was a dream that just couldn't come true
A dream that was a part
Of a love I never gave him
A lonely dream
Of a love we never knew

If only I had spoken
But the summer's through
All it left me was the emptiness
Of a love I never knew

Soon the leaves will fall
And autumn will be ending
Soon the winter winds will blow
And my eyes will be wet like the snow

And I will recall
The love I never gave him
And I will cry about
The love I'll never know

All the leaves are gold
All the leaves are...
