Okay, and once again, here's Bette Midler

{"Well, you know, when they asked me to come on and I can't believe it, the last, the last guest The last fool Mr. Carson will have to suffer gladly You are the wind beneath my wings Oh, well he is"}

Quarter to three
There's no one in the place except you and me
So set 'em up, Joe
Got a little story, I think you should know

We're drinkin', my friend To the end of a sweet episode Make it one for my baby And one more for the road

Got the routine
So drop another nickel in the machine
Oh, gee, I'm feelin' so bad
Wish you'd make the music so dreamy and sad

You could tell me a lot
But it's not in a gentleman's code
Let's make it one for my baby
And one more for the road

You may not know it but buddy you're a kind of poet And you've had a lot of things to say And when I'm gloomy, you always listen to me Until it's talked away

Well, that's how it goes And John I know you're getting anxious to close So, thanks for the cheer I hope you didn't mind me, bending your ear

For all of the years For the laughs, for the tears For the class that you showed

Make it one for my baby And one more for the road That long, long road

"Thank you, Bette, ah"
