

I'm All Smiles

Nancy Wilson

I'm all smiles, darling
You'd be too
If you knew, darling
All of my smiles were for you

I'm all chills, darling
Through and through
But my cold hands, darling
Warm to the touch of you

Rain hasn't fallen for days now
But rainbows are filling the skies
My heart must have planted those rainbows
Shining before my eyes

Can't you tell that I'm in love, darling?
Deep and true
With guess who, darling
Someone I'd die for, beg, steal or lie for

Eat humble pie for someone to fly
To the sun, moon and sky for someone to live for
To laugh with and cry for
And that someone is you

I'm all smiles
I'm all smiles
I'm all smiles
I'm all smiles
