I've Never Been To Me

Nancy Wilson

Hey lady, you lady Cursing at your life You're a discontented mother And a regimented wife I have no doubt You dream about the things you never do But I wish someone had talked to me like I wanna talk To vou Oh, I've been to Georgia and California and anywhere I Could run Took the hand of a preacher man And we made love in the sun But I ran out of places and friendly faces Because I had to be free I've been to paradise but I've never been to me... Please lady please lady Don't just walk away Cause I have this need to tell you Why I'm all alone today I can see so much of me Still living in your eyes Won't you share a part Of a weary heart that has lived a million lives Oh, I've been to Nice and the isle of Greece When I sipped champagne on a yacht I moved like Harlo in Monte Carlo And showed them what I've got I've been undressed by kings And I've seen some things that a woman ain't s'pose to See I've been to paradise but I've never been to me... Hey, you know what paradise is? It's a lie A fantasy we created about people and places As we like them to be But you know what truth is? It's that little baby you're holding And it's that man you fought with this morning The same one you are gonna make love to tonight That's truth that's love Sometimes I've been to crying for unborn children That might have made me complete But I, I took the sweet life I never knew I'd be bitter from the sweet I spent my life exploring

The subtle whoaring That cost to much to be free Hey lady I've been to paradise But I've never been to me...
