

New Song

Naomi Terra

i have messed up
i needed a new song, baby
wasn't enough
i needed a new song, baby
a song so sorry

and you tried your best to make me see i was blind now i believe i believe

and i can see
in your eyes
what's to be cause i told lies
sad to say
that in the end
there's only me

and i understand that you're sick of my confusion no it's worse than that i feel like the cheap whore that i am

you brushed me off to see me shine but underneath it all the time all the time

and i can see
cause i told lies
sad to say
that in the end

to say i'm sorry's not enough to make you stay with me oh no, oh no

cause i can see
in your eyes
cause i told lies
sad to say
that in the end
there's only me...
