

Beyond the Pale

Napalm Death

We stray beyond the pale,
beyond the failsafe
Narrow escape, authorised access Beyond the pale,
beyond the failsafe

Looking in from the outside Appealing resistance to equality
As we fall by the wayside Producing our offspring in captivity

Looking out from the inside Accessing wreckage from powers that be The effects of a landslide
No financial gain to restore poverty

We live behind the rules, we are the living proof Machines are set in constant motion without an indication of emotion

The medium creates the wave, with the potential to enslave We're dominated by the pull and so much easier to rule

Unprecedented need, the tools are in demand Machines are set in constant
motion without an indication
of emotion

Obviously feeding on the plains
An independent sinister exchange Bombarded by a placid neutral stance Developing without a second glance

Beyond the pale

The surface tension is venting fast Another social violation Closing the space on the present and past We live beyond the pale
