

Collision Course

Napalm Death

Our lives seem set on a collision course
A history we cannot change or will not change
The years and happiness mean everything and nothing If we cannot fit the final piece into the puzzle

We have to strive to push the boundaries further
the boundaries further
Or all our lives are set
on a collision course

The stress is mounting, we fail to breathe
What was important now seems pointless Perhaps it's time to flip our world upside down Embrace our lives for all that they are worth

We have to broaden
Horizons of understanding
We have to broaden
Horizons of understanding
Or all our lives are set

Death will take us all in the end
Prepare for bitterness
but live it 'til the end

This world I can gladly leave behind

Profoundly Naïve, scrambling, lost within Searching for self-gratification Anointing obsession, disarming purity Fracturing with poetic tragedy

Death will take us all in the end
Prepare for bitterness
