

Pledge Yourself to You

Napalm Death

God can take his eyes off me
Love is there - it's mine and mine alone
This soul is strong
Our bodies our own
To use, explore with no roots in those laws
Don't class me as a wayward waste
Open your eyes and shake your bondage chains.
Decreed chastity has no basis
Geared to curtail our loving instincts
Family fucking values - I've heard it all before
Passionless fucking robots - it's how we will function
So pledge yourself to you (not forced)
Pledge yourself to you
No urge to procreate - no crime to stimulate
To stem the flow of love - a weary, bygone age
So pledge yourself to you (not forced)
Pledge yourself to you
Family fucking values
I've heard it all before
Passionless fucking robots
It's how we will function
