

I Promise You Forever

Nasri

people dont know cuz they dont try when love unfolds you gotta hold it tight i see your souls in tune with mine i want you close im more then willing to devote my life i promise you forever it's all i have to give i promise you together is the only way we'll live i promise you myself with no limitations baby everything you need i'll provide im laying it on the line

i'll carry the weight, away from you i take the blame if you need me to you can have my shoulder and my heart is yours and as we get older you'll never hear me say that im not sure

i promise you forever it's all i have to give
i promise you that we'll see the world together side by side theres nothing better you dont have to put away your dream (you'll see) you are mine, without a doubt baby you'll forever be my queen oh leave it to me

i promise you forever it's all i have to give (yeaah)

i promise you forever it's all i have to give

i promise you forever, said i promise you forever ohh yeah..
