Doombringer

Nasum

No need for apologies, we all played fair No reason to forgive nor to forget Four years of high life and then you die Beaten by the clock yet you try to stay alive

Doom, the end is closing in Just before it all begins
The end is closing in

Destined to lead yet you're always last Strictly narrow minded, don't give a shit about the past Yet the future is dimmed in a cloud of gasoline In blood red darkening, you try to float upstream

The end is closing in

Doombringer Doombringer

Disappointed by the truth
Misery shines through you
Endless pain is all you give
Wade through emptiness for eternity
