Nasum

Violence, is it your answer, is it your plan?
Your heritage, a crossover between life and death
It's a must be fan raging in its cage
And I can see it coming, now can you?

No, I play it safe
One step ahead, two steps aside
Yeah, and I forget
It was reality that made you blind

Struggling, one breath of air that is all I ask
You're choking me and I am stripped down to the core
I am a must be fan raging in my cage
And I can feel it moving, now can you?

No, I play it safe
One step ahead, two steps aside
Yeah, and I forget
It was reality that made you blind

No, I play it safe
One step ahead, two steps aside
Yeah, it made you bleed
It made you come to sense and realize

Start by being honest
And realize your potential
Make a bed out of colorful flowers
Plant a seed, paint a picture, it's all you

Bury your regrets and
Cast your anchor where you like
And while you're at it you can
Bury all your sorrows
Feel you heart growing inside

No, I play it safe
One step ahead, two steps aside
Yeah, and I forget
It was reality that made you blind

No, I play it safe
One step ahead, two steps aside
Yeah, it made you bleed
It made you come to sense and realize
