

When You Walked By

Nat King Cole

I look when you walk by
There goes the one for me, said I
How strange it seems, meeting the dream I dreamed
Something that fate had schemed for a lonely guy

When you walked by, I knew
All of my life, I'd follow you, so, here I'll be Better get used to me and you may agree with a sigh
It was love when you walked by

And you may agree with a sigh
It was love when you walked by