

You're Crying On My Shoulder

Nat King Cole

Oh, you're crying on my shoulder for somebody else
Crying while I'm sighing for you

Holding you is such a sweet sensation
But you don't want my love, you want my consolation

Though you smile for someone, you don't smile for me
I just share your tears when you're blue

You're crying on my shoulder for somebody else
While my heart is crying for you

You're crying on my shoulder for somebody else
While my heart is crying for you
While my heart is crying for you
