

Schizophrenic

Natalia Lesz

You' re schizophrenic
So pathetic
Just don't get
I'm not in love
You're so pretty
What a pity
That it will never be enough
I bet you thought that u would always have control of me
But I gave up on being nice and now I'm running free

You're starting to have a little meltdown

Oh
This is my Goodbye
Oh
This is what u asked for
So cry baby
Bye

You try to reach me
Say you miss me
Think about me all the time
But this is real
I've got a life
You just can't walk in all the time
Did I mention that I'm doing so much better on my own?
I hope you have all that you want now that you're all alone
