Schizophrenic

You' re schizophrenic So pathetic Just don't get I'm not in love You're so pretty What a pity That it will never be enough I bet you thought that u would always have control of me But I gave up on being nice and now I'm running free You're starting to have a little meltdown Oh This is my Goodbye Oh This is what u asked for So cry baby Bye You try to reach me Say you miss me Think about me all the time But this is real I've got a life You just can't walk in all the time Did I mention that I'm doing so much better on my own? I hope you have all that you want now that you're all alone
