

Not For You

Natalie Bassingthwaite

Knocked down, unappreciated
Day is losing grip on the light
And everywhere I turn there is night Locked out and confused I waited I saw but never opened my eyes Alone together blinded by lies

And I could never get through Cause I was never with you

If I gave you the world would it be enough for you, not for you
If I tore out my heart and my mind and wrapped them
nicely, yeah
I can deal with the hurt and the blame, but not for you, not for you
And I don't wanna stay, I can deal with the pain, but baby, not for you

I kept all the focus and nerve Was answering your every call And making sure that we had it all You reap what you sew and I burn
And love can be a devious snake Pretending to be real when she's fake

And I could never reach you
Cause I was never with you

If I gave you the world would it be enough for you, not
for you
nicely, yeah
I can deal with the hurt and the blame, but not for
you, not for you
And I don't wanna stay, I can deal with the pain, but baby, but baby

Not for you
I don't wanna stay
Not for you

(If I gave you the world would it be enough for you)
Never enough for you
(If I gave you the world would it be enough for you)

If I gave you the world would it be enough for you, not
for you
If I tore out my heart and my mind and wrapped them
nicely, yeah
I can deal with the hurt and the blame, but not for you, and not for you
And I don't wanna stay, I can deal with the pain, but
baby, not for you

Day is losing grip on the light

And everywhere I look there is night
