

Nothing Stronger Than Love

Natalie Cole

There ain't nothin' stronger than love
There ain't no word greater than love

And once you feel that your whole life will change, yeah
You'll never wanna hurt again, no one, never wanna hurt again

There ain't no tears, no tears wetter than love
There ain't no smile, no smile, no smile

No smile wider than love and when all forsake you
They seem to see wrong in what you say, yeah
Nobody holds the key, nobody holds the key to the answer

I know that love will show the way, yeah
Love will show the way

There ain't nothin' stronger than love
There ain't nothin' stronger than love, no love

Now you can live on my friend but you'll never, never find
No love, the word I'm talkin' 'bout can give you peace of mind
Love is the answer to the burden that you have in your heart

I know, it can give a lonely person a brand new start
Love is a blessing, ooh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I like to think about love as a bridge over troubled water
Oh, I like to think about love as the little children playing together

There ain't nothin', nothin' stronger than love
You know, I like to think about it, no, I like to think
There ain't nothin', nothin' stronger than love, about it, love
, no

There ain't nothin', nothin' stronger than love
I really like to think about everybody, everybody comin', no
Together, there ain't nothin', nothin' stronger than love

I really like to think about it, I can see the day, yeah, no
It's gonna happen one of these ol' days, no love

There ain't nothin' stronger, stronger, stronger than love
