

For All Of Us

Natalie Grant

Oh grace without exception
How fortunate are we
That this love without measure
Is able to redeem
And without hesitation
Our sin is washed away
Unforgettable the moment
How glorious the day

Here at the cross
Your death, the price
Your agony means life
For all of us
You did it for all of us
Here at the cross
Its finally done
Your victory is won
For all of us
You did it for all of us

The mystery of the ages
Unfolded on a hill
With the ringing of a hammer
Hope is now revealed
The very king of heaven
Comes a spotless Lamb
Holding all our guilt and shame
In His outstretched hands

Here at the cross
Your death, the price
Your agony means life
For all of us
You did it for all of us
Here at the cross
Its finally done
Your victory is won
For all of us
You did it for all of us

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Worthy is the Lamb
That was slain Here at the cross
Your death, the price
Your agony means life
For all of us
You did it for all of us
Here at the cross
Its finally done
Your victory is won
For all of us
You did it for all of us
