

Just A Glimpse

Natalie Grant

I don't have to fully know
Just how far Your love can go
To sing of Your love for me

I don't have to comprehend
How Your mercy never ends
To sing of Your mercy

And all I need is
All I really need is

Just a glimpse of You
And I'm in awe
Just a glimpse of You
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

All I can do is worship You Lord, yeah

And I don't have to clearly see
How amazing grace can be
To sing of Your grace for me

And I don't have to fully grasp
The measure of Your holiness
Oh, to sing holy holy, holy holy

And all I need is
All I really need is

Just a glimpse of You
And I'm in awe
Just a glimpse of You
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

I worship You
I worship You
I worship You

Just a glimpse of You
And I stand in awe
Just a glimpse of You
You take my breathe away
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

Just a glimpse of You
And I'm in awe
Just a glimpse of You
My God
Just a glimpse of You

Just a glimpse of You
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

All go ahead and worship him tonight
We worship You
We lift up our voices in praise
And thanksgiving Lord
We worship You
I worship You, yeah, yeah, yeah

We worship You Lord
In spirit and truth
We worship You
We stand in child like amazement
Oh, with our eyes wide open
We worship You
With our hands stretched wide
We worship You
With our hearts wide open Lord
We worship You
