

Make Me Over

Natalie Grant

I've been silent instead of speakin' up
I gave my advice instead of givin' love
I have been unfair, faithless and unkind
I have shut my eyes just so I would stay blind
It's not what I'm meant to do
'Cause I wanna honor You

Make me over, make me new
Make me a mirror, a reflection of You
Take me all apart, take me to Your heart
And pull me closer
Oh Jesus, make me over

Take away the pride that whispers in the dark, yeah
Take the stone out of the middle of my heart
Hidden underneath my insecurities, yeah
Is the servant that You've destined me to be
Day after precious day
I get in my own way

So make me over, make me new
Make me a mirror, a reflection of You
Take me all apart, take me to Your heart
And pull me closer
Sweet Savior, make me over

I am only made of Your imagining
I'm dust and clay on the wind
Wash me in the river of Your sacrifice
Until I'm changed, purified

Yeah, take me all apart, take me to Your heart
And pull me closer
My Jesus, make me over, yeah

Make me over, yeah yeah
Make me over
Oh, make me over, Jesus

Please, make me over
I need You
I need You, Jesus
Make me new
