

You Deserve

Natalie Grant

How can I come bringing no more than this
You are the Lord your wrapped in holyness
Here I am before you now, here I am

You deserve every mountain falling
You deserve every ocean reaching
You deserve all creation crying out your worth
You deserve all of heaven singing
You deserve every nation rising
I have heard all you want is my love

How can I be the one your heart aches for
Still can't believe you say that I am yours
Here I am before you now , Here I am

You deserve every mountain falling
You deserve every ocean reaching
You deserve all creation crying out your worth
You deserve all of heaven singing
You deserve every nation rising
I have heard all you want is my love

You deserve every mountain falling
You deserve every ocean reaching
You deserve all creation crying out your worth
You deserve all of heaven singing
You deserve every nation rising
I have heard all you want is my love
