

More and More

Natasha Thomas

Lovin you
more and more
I can feel the glow of your kiss
I don't have the strength to resist
more and more
Baby just more into your trap
I will fall
I will give all I have
For a chance
To love you more

My emotion where on display
I really don't know what I have to say I will be on the right way (change!)
I think I am walking on air tonight you the love of my lifetime and I know that my feeling's right
I know you'll never live until you love
Uh I hope it will be last forever
You and I will stay together
more and more

Lovin you
more and more
I can feel the glow of your kiss
more and more
Baby just more
into your trap
I will fall
I will give all I have
For a chance
To love you more

you took my hand and guide me to a place where our feelings just begin to grow I think that all my wishes will come true
Just be yourself in what you do I never thought that a rendezvous Change the way that I live my life
But I know that my feelings right
I know you'll never live until you love
Uh I hope it will be last forever
babe and it's your smile when I get mad and it's your kiss when I just want it more and more
