

More Than You'll Ever Know

Nathan Sykes

Hey girl, I'm thinking of you
Get you home with me, and I wanna
Hey, hey, hey
See girl, don't want another
I'm down on my knees, ready to
Hey, hey, hey

It's a cold, cold world when I'm without you
Don't you know, know girl, I'm lucky I found you

And I love you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
And I need you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
So, please, don't misbehave with my heart

Nothing can make me hate you
You're the closest thing to heaven in nature
Hey, hey, hey
No other man's gonna take you
Comin' over me, that's bad behavior

It's a cold, cold world when I'm without you
Don't you know, know girl, I'm lucky I found you

And I love you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
Said I need you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
So, please, don't misbehave with my heart
And please don't misbehave when it's dark
And I love you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
So please, please

Take it down for me baby
Take it down for me baby
Baby, get it on
Get it up for me baby [x3]
Baby

I love you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
And I need you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
I love you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
Said I need you more, oh, more than you'll ever know
I love you more
