

Let Me Just Fly

Natural

Can't fight the feeling, it's time for truth or dare now
Because the fire is growing
All lines are open, it's time to check it out now
I don't care where I'll be going
I'll never give in, I still believe in life is something special
No holding back and... I'll take my chances
My piece of mind is somewhere out there
No more waiting... gonna spread my wings

Let me just fly
So high off the ground
Let me just fly
Cause you can't hold me down

The voices tell me, do what you think is right now
I feel the temperature rising
My heart can hear it a three-dimensional sound
On the distant horizon
Things I don't know, outside my window
I want to see them clearly
I'll leave the light on, I don't know how long
I'll be traveling... so much faster...
Who's to know when I'll be back to see you again

Yeah cause I'll never turn away
From the promises I made inside
Yeah even when the skies are grey
I just take a leap of faith and fly
