A Beautiful Song

Woke up this morning My dog was dead Someone disliked him And shot him through the head I woke up this morning And my cat had died I'm gonna miss her Sat down and cried Came home this evening My hog was gone The people here don't like me I think I'll soon move on And now somethin's happened That would make a saint frown I turned my back and My house burned down Woke up this morning My dog was dead Someone disliked him And shot him through the head I woke up this morning And my cat had died Don't you know I'm gonna miss her Sat down and cried
