Open My Eyes

There is only one winner There is only one prize Whoever gets your heart is the winner There is only one winner I'm at war with a man that I still haven't seen It's a fight for life, if I lose you I'll die Somebody's got to lose you and that's why

There is only one winner There is no second place I only know I must be the winner There is nothing to lose but the sight of your face I can't stay around if I know you're not mine Somebody's gonna be lost in your mind

There's a line I don't want to have to follow behind And I just can't see myself hugging you, loving you There is only one winner You're the one to decide You've got to tell me who is the winner Tell me who gets the broken heart, who gets the bride Not a thing I can do - it depends upon you But nobody wants to win more than I do

I can't lie, and I'll do anything to show you my side I won't lie, no lie I'll do anything to bring you over to my side Take your time, take your time If you want all my time is yours Time is yours to make me the winner
