

Crave Consume Possess Discard
Decive Derange Destruct Repeat

In modern ivory towers
Existence is dehumanized
When compacency calculates
Exploitation becomes relative

Forging the blade for your decapitation
Orchestrating downfall
Preaching excessiveness

The downside of contentment
The vile philosophy
Of a system poised to fail itself

All hail the meltdown
Units under the banner of gluttony
Bear witness to the great experiment
Of poverty through profit

A culture of avarice
Detached from reason

So scream the primal scream of greed
And pound the drums of ruin
