

Decolonize the Mind

Neaera

Break the chains!

Rise beyond the selfish throne,
think beyond your endless own.
Rise above what harms your soul,
to uphold strength and capture fear.
You need a soul that wants to steer.

Decolonize the mind, leave the strains behind.
Decolonize the mind, leave the strains behind.

Break the chains, kill the pains.
Light the flame of what they want to stain.

Rise beyond the selfish throne,
think beyond your endless own.
Rise above what harms your soul,
to uphold strength and capture fear.
You need a soul that wants to steer.

Build yourself an open space,
where you can grow, withstand to bow.

Decolonize the mind.
There is no peace outside the self.
There is no peace outside the self.

Decolonize the mind, leave the strains behind

Break the chains, kill the pains.
Light the flame of what they want to stain.

Break the chains, kill the pains.
Light the flame of what they want to stain.
